A Medicine Chest For 25c.

In this chest you have an excellent remedy for Toothache, Bruises, Sprains, Stiff neck, Backache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism and for most emergencies. One 25c. bottle of Sloan's Liniment does it all—this because these ailments are symptoms, not diseases, and are caused by congestion and inflammation. If you doubt, ask those who use Sloan's Liniment, or better still, buy a 25c. bottle and prove it. All Druggists—adv.

Become Critical as to Diet.

So many cases of ptomaine poisoning have occurred in France from eating stale oysters, or those grown in water containing sewage, that consumers are very critical about shellfish which have come a long distance.

Is Sickness a Sin?

If not, it's wicked to neglect illness and means of relief. It's wicked to endure Liver Ills, Headache, indigestion, constipation, when one dose of Po-Dox-Lax gives relief. Po-Dox-Lax is Podoxylin (May Apple), without the gripe. It arouses the Liver, increases the flow of bile—Nature's antiseptic in the Bowels. Your Constipation and other ills disappear overnight because Po-Dox-Lax has helped Nature to remove the cause. Get a bottle from your Druggist to day. Get rid of your Constipation overnight. adv.

Electric Power Preferred.

Electric power has been adopted by candy factories because of its ease of control and cleanliness.

Billious? Feel heavy after dinner?

Bitter taste? Complexion sallow? Liver perhaps needs waking up. Doan's "Legulets for billious attacks." 25c at all stores. adv.

Folly of Revenge.

By taking revenge a man is but equal with his enemy, but in passing it over he is superior.—Bacon.

AMOLOX THE NEW DISCOVERY

Many Cures Reported Daily in Towns Where It Is Known.

The wonderful cures that are being made by this remarkable new remedy are almost beyond belief.

A young lady from Ottumwa, Iowa, for many years suffered from a bad case of eczema. Her face was a sight to behold; all covered with red blotches, pustules and pimples. So unsightly was her appearance she gave up all social life. Failing to find relief with doctors and remedies, she became despondent and discouraged. After a few weeks' treatment Amolox liquid and ointment, the scaly redness disappeared, pustules healed and she was entirely cured. A few months following her mother wrote that Amolox had done wonders for her daughter, and she was married last week.

This is only one of the many cases that are being reported in towns where Amolox has been introduced and its merits have become known. Amolox Ointment will quickly banish pimples, blackheads and all minor skin trouble. Bad cases of Eczema, Psoriasis, Tetter, and skin diseases lasting for years, should use both ointment and liquid to effect a cure. Trial size, 50c. Guaranteed by Henry L. Perry, the druggist. adv.

Wool Check Walking Suit

THIS striking walking suit of black and white wool check is made in Norfolk style and trimmed with shiny black ball buttons. The full circular skirt has pockets on the side, and the coat is lined with white satin, as well as white wool check. The suit is about all the first class dressmakers use.

ANNA MAY.

Notice.

We have just received information that a man is taking subscriptions for this paper at Sand Gap and other points. We never heard of this man and he has no authority to represent us. He is a swindler. Be on your guard and give us such information as you may have in order that we may catch him and put him behind the bars.

Hubby Only.

"Madam: are you a woman suffragist?" "No sir, I haven't time to be." "Haven't time?" Well, if you had the privilege of voting, who would you support? "The same man I've supported for ten years." "And who is that?" "My husband."

What Does He Care?

Some boob in the Michigan legislature wants to introduce a bill making it a felony to kiss a woman, as osculation spreads disease. That would be a fool law and the author ought to be court martialed and shot before sunrise. If a fellow has a chance to kiss his sweet heart who has a little form, bewitching eyes, ruby lips painted by nature and white teeth, what does he care whether he dies with leprosy, bubonic plague or hydrophobia?

Puncture Cost $40.

Dr. G. G. Perry is $40 poorer this week as a result of a puncture to a tire of his big Buick car, which was encountered on a trip to Richmond on last Sunday morning. When the tire went down, his son, Igo, who is an expert mechanic, did the heavy work in changing tires, but Dr. Perry took off his coat to be ready for consultation, if need be. He had the money in a hip pocket, and thinks that in some way it slipped out while he was doffing and donning his garment after the work was done. As soon as he missed the "roll" he went back to the scene of the disaster, but no trace of the money could be found.—Stanford Journal.

Big Delegation.

The Democratic State Convention to be held in Louisville next Tuesday will be a large delegation. If all delegates attend, and there is no doubt they will all be on hand, there will be a total of 2,196 Madison county is entitled to a representation of 30 in the Convention. Out of a total of 2,196 men there ought to be found enough material to formulate a fairly good platform. Let us hope they will construct a platform upon which every Democrat can stand, and be able to present a united front to the common enemy—the Republican party—in November.

Prominent Business Man Dead.

Mr. John C. M. Day, aged 56 years, a widely known business man, died at his home in Winchester last Wednesday morning after a long illness of Bright's disease. He was a very prosperous man and interested in many enterprises. He was interested in the mercantile and lumber business and owner of the Mountain Central Railroad. He was a brother of Floyd Day, and possibly best known man in Southeastern Kentucky. His funeral was held in the First Presbyterian Church, in Winchester, Friday morning, after which his remains were laid to rest in the Winchester Cemetery, with impressive ceremonies by the Elk and Masonic lodges.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers, rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Fine for cuts, burns, bruises. Should be kept in every home. 25c and 50c. adv.

Smiles and Tears.

There died last week in Chicago a girl who was noted for her smiles. They were not the insipid, meaningless smiles of one who does not wish her face to be spoiled by frowns, but the smiles of a kind and helpful spirit. The girl who was known and loved for her smiles was Jewel Mary Walsh. Miss Walsh worked in the County Recorder's office. She recently took her vacation and contracted pneumonia on an outing. She died Sunday last, and on Monday it was said there was not a dry eye among the three hundred and fifty fellow employees in Miss Walsh's office. The girl who met everyone with a smile and kind word will be missed.

A "Jewel" was she. A smile woven into the warp and woof of life is sure to bring tears when death lays its icy hand upon the weaver. The person who can smile and has a pleasant word for every soul, and when the smiling lips are stilled, a cloud hangs over every human being. Every girl who greets everyone with a smile and kind word is sure to be missed, for such are the greatest blessings that ever fell to the lot of human kind.

Correspondence

BYBEE.

Miss Hazel Moore is spending the week end with her aunt, Mrs. Irvine Christopher, at Irvine. Mrs. Arthur Bonny, who has been living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clouse, has gone to Richmond to reside. Protracted meeting is in progress at Flatwoods church. Great interest is being manifested.

Miss Katherine Baumstark has a very painful arm caused by a fall. Lucile Brock has returned from a visit to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elva Tudor, at Newby. Sadie Belle Brock has gone to Newby for a three week's stay with relatives. Mrs. Lucy Cox is spending the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Charles Murphy. Mrs. Cox was formerly Miss Lucy Collins. Mr. and Mrs. Walker McKinney moved over from Georgetown and spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Boggs.

WACO.

Mrs. Muggie Ayers, Mr. Allison Ayers, Miss Eva Ayers, and Mrs. Leta McKinney, of Howard, Kansas, and Douthitt Ayers, of Akron, Ohio, and Fletcher Ayers, of Versailles, California, were recent guests of W. L. Blanton and family. Miss Elbert Browning Mills, of Harrodsburg, is the guest of the Misses Cobb. Miss Zora Lewis, of Winchester, is visiting Miss Ethelene Wilson. Misses Mary and Willie Traynor came out to assist with the musical part of the service at Flatwoods Sunday evening. Everyone enjoyed the solos.

Miss Cornelia Wilson returned Saturday from an extended visit to her grandparents at Winchester. Harry Cockrell, of Irvine, spent Sunday with G. P. Bush. Mrs. Ira Atkinson and children, of Portland, Ind., and Mrs. C. W. Williams of Cynthiana, spent some time with their sister, Mrs. H. T. Bonny. Miss Nell Taylor, of Richmond, and Miss Carrie Witt, of Estill county, are guests of Miss Lucy Thorpe. Mr. R. M. Howard and family and Mrs. H. W. Three Bushels of Jewels.

Three bushels of jewels, purses and other pieces of personal property which belonged to victims of the Eastland disaster when the ship, just three weeks after the catastrophe, was restored to even keel Saturday. The property was found on the upper decks, which were the first available to search. The exploration of the hull will follow.

"Letter of Condolence."

Mr. Latt F. McLaughlin, who was defeated for the Republican nomination for Governor, has sent a "letter of condolence" and an "expression of heartfelt sympathy" to Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, the successful aspirant. He tells his opponent he will live to spend some campaign, "as he has" no more chance to win than a snow-bird has to live in hibernia. He adds: "You committed suicide at Lexington and the victory for our party was there assassinated. The trap closed on us on August 7, and the deadfall will get us on November 2, unless your soul awakens from selfishness and you have the magnanimity to withdraw before the certificate of nomination is handed to you."

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IX.—Third Quarter, For Aug. 29, 1915.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, I Kings xvii, 1-16. Memory Verses, 14-16—Golden Text, I Peter v, 7—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

We have had a sample of the kings bad and good and are not asked by the committee to consider the life of another king until the end of October. We have heard the Lord's message through several prophets, and now we are to have seven lessons on Elijah and Elisha, two of the greatest of the prophets, both of whom, as well as Jonah, are mentioned by name by the Lord Jesus (Luke iv, 25-27; Matt. xii, 29-31). He spoke of Daniel also by name and said of all the true prophets that it was foolish not to believe at they said (Matt. xxiv, 15; Luke xxiv, 25, 27, 44; Acts iii, 21). There were false prophets whom God never sent, as well as bad kings (Jer. xxiii, 16, 21, 25, 26), but a true prophet was the Lord's messenger with the Lord's message (Hag. i, 13). This is our first introduction to Elijah, whose name signifies "Jehovah is my God," and his watchword is "The Lord God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand" (verse 1 and chapter xviii, 15). We are reminded of the angel's reply to Zachariah's "How shall I know?" in Luke i, 18, "I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God," and also of Paul's words in Acts xxvii, 23, "There stood by me the angel of God, whose I am and whom I serve."

A true man of God has to do only with God—take orders from Him only and look to Him alone for supplies. Our Lord understood this, and three and a half years without rain, and James says that it was in answer to the earnest prayer of Elijah, although he was a man subject to like passions as we are (Luke iv, 25; Jas. v, 17, 18). The reason of his prayer is found in the fact that Jeroboam had become desperately wicked, and as to Ahab it is written of him that he did evil in the sight of the Lord above all that were before him (I Kings xvi, 30-33). Then in the law of Moses it was written that if a man sinned against God, among other things, make the heaven iron or brass (Lev. xxvi, 19; Deut. xxviii, 23). Elijah therefore, in his jealousy for the honor of Jehovah, asked God to fulfill His threat in this matter that Jeroboam should be brought to repentance. That Elijah might be out of the way of the wrath of Ahab the Lord sent him for a time to hide himself by the brook Cherith. Contrast "Get thee hence and hide thyself" with "Go shew thyself" (xviii, 3; xviii, 1). The man of God has no say, no choice, but simply to obey.

If God is to be seen and glorified self must be out of sight. It must be "Not I, but Christ;" "Not I, but the grace of God" (Gal. ii, 20; I Cor. xv, 10). When the Lord sends us He will provide all that we need in His own way, and when He shall ask us at the end of the journey, "Lacked ye anything?" we shall, no doubt, be able to answer as did the disciples, "Nothing" (Luke xxi, 28). In this case Elijah's food was to be water from the brook and bread and flesh brought to him every morning and evening by ravens, real, literal blackbirds, such as the one Noah sent out of the ark. No other interpretation of ravens will stand. Notice that the Lord told Elijah where to go and then said, "I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there." To know the Lord's care we must be where the Lord wants us. "Strengthen and gladden us in His place" (I Chron. xvi, 27), but if we are not in His place for us we may miss the strength and gladness. Both Elijah and the ravens were obedient to the word of the Lord, and this is all that is required of us. After awhile the brook dried up (verse 7), and some day Elijah may tell us if he had any anxiety as he saw the brook growing less and less—probably not.

If any who read this see their brook drying up, let them remember the word of God (Elijah and Deut. xxxii, 8; Phil. iv, 18). By the word of the Lord he is now commanded to go to the home of a widow in Zapharath or Sarepta, who has been commanded to sustain him, and on his arrival there he finds the widow gathering sticks with which to prepare her last meal for her son and herself, for she assured Elijah that she had no provisions in the house, but a handful of meal and a little oil. Now make this as literally real as you can and say how you would feel with such a prospect. But Elijah had the word of the Lord to rest upon, and he boldly assured her that there was no cause to fear, and that there would always be meal in the barrel and oil in the cruse, and so it came to pass according to the word of the Lord, which He spoke by Elijah, and she and her house did eat many days, or as in the margin, a full year (verses 13-16). It was simple and somewhat monotonous fare—meal and oil and meal—but we do not hear of any one complaining. The story of the death and resurrection of the widow's son in the rest of our lesson chapter is the first of the kind in the Bible, and has many suggestive and practical lessons. Let us say it to heart and note verse 24 and trust the Lord to use it to give life to many. Note a similar event in II Kings iv, 32-37, by the hands of Elisha and consider the three resurrections by the Lord Jesus and see Phil. iii, 10.

Its dollars to doughnuts that you will forget to hand us "Our Dollar" when you come to town.

Our Daily Special.

What this country needs is fewer orators and more listeners.

Luke McLuke Says:

Always try to remember that when you are laughing at a man behind his back there are a lot of men behind your back who are laughing at you.

The reason why father knows that Sherman was right when he remarked that "war is hell" is because father has to use safety pins to fasten the holes in the toes of his socks together while mother is at her club knitting feet warmers for the men in the trenches.

Every now and then in your wanderings you run into a man who gives you the impression that he is wearing long stockings and a gauze undershirt with baby ribbon in it.

A plump princess with a frog face knows that every man in town has designs upon her if you will let her tell it, but a pretty girl keeps her mouth shut because she is ashamed to admit that about 800 men try to flirt with her every day.

If a man stays around the house all the time his wife has no use for him, and if he stays away from the house all the time she is as mad as a wet hen.

The man who can't take a joke is mighty quick to take offense.

Why is a girl with pretty little pluk ears expected to cover them up with her hair and hide them? And why is the man who has a pair of albatross planes growing on the sides of his face expected to keep his hair cut short so as to exaggerate nature's generosity?

A man may be a good judge of other things, but it isn't safe to let him make a ruling in the matter of his own importance.

A man will get mad if you call him a bleary-eyed monkey, and yet he will feel real proud if you tell him that his new baby looks just like him.

What's the use? If father goes out at night mother will nag him when he gets back because he doesn't take her out somewhere like other husbands take their wives. And if father stays home at night and offers to take her out somewhere mother will nag him because she doesn't want to go out and will nag him because she hasn't a lot of nice clothes to wear like other men's wives have.
